

2015 J.P. Morgan DR Events

J.P. Morgan is proud to offer the opportunity for clients to engage with us, each other and industry specialists in insightful discussions on the evolving market environment, investor relations, and various other topical issues. In addition to client-specific events, we host educational events and workshops across all regions in which our clients operate.

Event Overview

DR CFO Salon

January 27 | Beijing

Clients and prospects enjoyed a night of networking and discussions over dinner on their outlook of the markets and observations on the current economic landscape.

DR Mumbai Workshop

March 17 | Mumbai

Inaugural survey conducted for India on U.S./EMEA investors' perceptions on the Indian market and companies. Workshop aimed to share findings on investors' sentiment on the new political environment and Indian capital markets.

Greater China CFO Summit

March 19-21 | Taipei

This flagship conference offered CEOs & CFOs the latest on DR trends and observations on the current economic landscape. Delegates learned about the key requirements of the capital raising process by sharing case studies and best practices.

DR Mumbai Workshop

March 31 | Mumbai

Guest speakers from an international law firm and the Head of ECM India shared the latest on the Indian DR scheme for 2014.

Depository Receipts Quarterly Seminar

April 8 | Moscow

A solid grasp of the information disclosure rules of the London Stock Exchange allows any IRO to comfortably navigate through a myriad of corporate events during any one year. However, it is not just the strict adherence to the rules that makes a transparent company, but rather the ability to balance the regulatory with a need to build an attractive investment story. This seminar addressed what IROs of public and those looking to list in London absolutely need to know and what tools and strategies should be utilized to be successful.

China Survey Rollout

Week of May 11

Beijing & Shanghai

Workshops will be held in Beijing and Shanghai to release the findings of the 4th annual survey on U.S. and European investors' perceptions on Chinese companies and their sentiments in investing in the market.

J.P. Morgan Depository Receipts Forum

October 6-8 | New York

This global DR forum is a combination of educational workshops led by market experts and networking activities that enable issuers to connect with industry peers and J.P. Morgan. The forum focuses on DR basics and consists of deep dives on IR fundamentals and best practices, providing issuers with advice and tools on how to navigate the evolving capital markets and create shareholder value for their firms.
